

Dresden East Civic Association.

Board of Director's Meeting - January 4, 2017

Meeting called to order at 7p by Vice President Andrew Hanna.

Attending: Maureen Ahmed (Wakefield Forest), Marty Johnson (Frontier Woods), Sondra Martin (Whispering Hills), Jordan Fox (Community Relations), Andrew Hanna (Vice President), Alex Bozarth (Treasurer) and Mel Coe (Secretary). Guests: The Honorable Tom Hogan and The Honorable John Mesa members of Chamblee City Council.

Discussion was held concerning the neighborhood representatives. Representatives are still needed for Marlin Acres, LaVenture Forrest and an additional representative for Wakefield Forest. Two signs promoting DECA quarterly meetings will be given to the neighborhood representatives.

The use of other social media outlets by DECA for announcements, etc. was discussed. Instagram and Twitter were two that were actively discussed. No decision was made on the issue.

A review was made concerning the duties of the elected Vice President. Some of the responsibilities are to serve as chair of the Membership Committee coordinating their activities and maintain the membership list. The board discussed the use of PayPal to collect funds for membership.

DECA diners will continue the 3rd Friday of each month meeting at various local restaurants. Paul Tribble will continue to head up that activity with the next "get together" on January 20th at the Crawfish Shack.

The next quarterly meeting for DECA will convene at St. Pius High School on January 18th at 7p. Guest speakers are expected to be Pam Liu discussing her proprietary STEM school opportunity. A representative(s) are expected from the Dresden Elementary School Foundation.

The meeting adjourned at 8:30p. Next board meeting is slated for February 6, 2017.

Respectfully submitted,

Mel Coe
Secretary

