Board of Director's Meeting - March 6, 2017

---

Meeting was called to order at 7p by President Christopher Lee. The board was joined by Chamblee City Council Members Tom Hogan and John Mesa.

Chamblee's Public Relations Manager, Tisa Moore, was introduced. Ms. Moore discussed several items of interest to DECA. PDK Good Neighbor Day will be held on June 10th. Moore told the Board about upcoming changes in the city's magazine "The Signal". Editorial direction will include more of a "lifestyle" direction. She is hoping the change will bring in more advertising revenue.

It was announced April 23-29 will be Georgia Cities Week." Economic Development" and "Idea Chamblee" will be in the mix.

The artist mural by Dallas, Texas artist Michael Jones will be unveiled on April 1st.

Treasurer Alex Bozarth reported to the board the bank balance of $1,966.

Heroes Holiday Fund was discussed. Motion was approved to direct Heroes through the DECA Board and not through a separate account. The Heroes Holiday fund provides Thanksgiving and Christmas meals for the fire stations that cover the DECA area.

Ideas were discussed about membership drives to improve active participants in the community. No action was taken.

A training session for the Neighborhood Watch Program throughout the city was discussed. No action was taken.

The board approved a $50 expenditure for a table at PDK Good Neighbor Day. There were several volunteers for tables, chairs and tent.

It was generally agreed that the next quarterly meeting would feature a Legislative Summary by local State Representatives and Senators.

The summer DECA picnic was discussed. No action was taken.
