

Dresden East Civic Association

Quarterly Meeting January 18, 2017 (St. Pius X High School)

Quarterly meeting was called to order at 7p by President Christopher Lee.

Special guests included: Chamblee Mayor Eric Clarkson, Councilmen Brian Mock and Tom Hogan, and Chamblee City Manager Jon Walker.

Membership was discussed. It was noted there are 93 members of DECA that are up to date on their dues.

It was announced that the Board would soon be working goals and the action items to be accomplished for the year.

It was recommended that copies of The DECAzette be distributed to new neighbors in their "Welcome Packet" along with select businesses in the Chamblee area to reach out to their enterprises.

Presentations were made from representatives of the Dresden Elementary School Foundation discussing efforts of clean up and aiding teachers. Pam Liu made a presentation on the efforts of her proprietary school centered on STEM education. Representatives from Chamblee Police Department discussed crime in the DECA area. There is concern by the police over crime in the Johnson/Plaster Roads area.

There was discussion about the various DECA neighborhood representatives being provided at least two signs for promoting the DECA quarterly meetings. There was continued discussion over the use of various social media outlets including Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

It was announced that DECA Diners will continue 3rd Friday of the month.

Meeting was adjourned at 9p.
